

Open Farm Sunday

8th June 2014
celebrating British farming and food

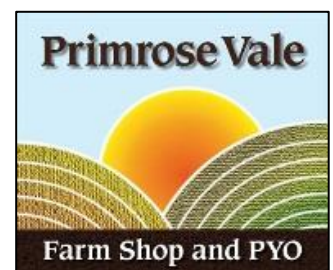

Ever wondered what it means to be a farmer?

On Sunday 8th of June hundreds of farms across the UK are opening up so you can discover more about the land, people and animals which feed us.

Join Alexander & Angell Farms and Primrose Vale Farm Shop and PYO at Primrose Vale, Shurdington Road, GL51 4UA for the chance to meet the pigs and chickens, to pick your own strawberries, follow a woodland trail and much more!

This free event is suitable for the whole family with plenty for both young and old to see and do.

Please visit www.farmsunday.org and search for the farm or contact Sophie on 07887 776108 or AAFarmsLtd@outlook.com for more details

www.farmsunday.org

* PYO soft fruit and vegetables must be paid for in the farm shop